Property Details

Bright, spacious and offered chain free, this two double bedroom, split-level flat occupies the top floors of a handsome Victorian conversion end of terrace property on Tremadoc Road. Larger than average, it offers over 900 sq ft of recently redecorated internal space as well as a communal garden. The tastefully finished shaker-style kitchen offers room to dine, while the generous reception room boasts characterful parquet flooring, large sash windows and working gas fire. Both bedrooms are well-proportioned doubles, arranged over different floors of the property and benefitting from a desirable level of privacy from each other. This charming property is perfectly located on a residential street in the heart of vibrant Clapham, with the amenities of Brixton also within walking distance.
