Property Details

A decedent five bedroom end-of-terrace home neighbouring a community run park. Set within the residential roads between Clapham, Brixton and Stockwell. Strikingly unique, playful colours are used throughout making a fun exception to the norm with contemporary styling beautifully balanced with Victorian charm. Packed full of character and storage, the double reception room boasts high ceilings, wooden floorboards, an original fireplace and sash windows plus French doors to the garden. The spectacular kitchen is finished to an excellent standard with vibrant red cabinetry neatly integrating appliances and offering generous storage. A welcoming space in which to dine at the breakfast bar or enjoy dinner at the table. The garden is surrounded by trees and shrubbery this South-facing suntrap feels wonderfully secluded. Laid to deck and patio, the perfect low-maintenance outdoor oasis. A convenient WC is also on this floor, plus access to the blank canvas of a large dug out and refinished cellar. To the upper floors sit five comfortable double bedrooms and a delightful family bathroom. This exceptional family home has double glazed windows and doors throughout and there is access to a storage loft.
