Property Details

Keating Estates are proud to offer this stunning one double bedroom in this fantastic, secure, gated development located a fifteen minute walk from Brixton town centre. This exclusive development has well maintained grounds and a private entrance to one of London's most popular spaces; Brockwell Park.

The flat has plenty of internal living space and built in storage. The apartment has direct access from the stunning open plan reception onto a private balcony. The kitchen has all you need in terms of mod cons and a convenient walk-in pantry. The bedroom is of good size and the contemporary bathroom is beautifully finished. The whole property is flooded with natural light, engineered throughout for a sense of space and luxury. A fluid design which makes excellent use of the already generous footprint of each unit. Transport links which include Brixton tube station within a fifteen minute walk, Tulse Hill and Herne Hill are both within an eleven minute walk (British Rail) and an abundance of bus links into Central London.
