Property Details

An immaculately refurbished five bedroom Victorian house with a landscaped garden and amenities in every direction. Tastefully finished with high-end touches and lovely light flow. An inviting double reception has high ceilings, bay window and curved wall, complimented by modern lighting and flooring. The contemporary kitchen integrates appliances and storage with a sociable island and secondary lounge area enhancing this fantastic entertaining space, bathed in light from skylights and glass walls. The landscaped garden is low-maintenance with lighting and outdoor sockets. Completing the ground floor is a W.C., plus utility cellar keeping the laundry quietly tucked away. The principal bedroom suite is a deluxe room with a separate dressing area and luxurious en-suite. A second expansive suite has a wall of wardrobes and similarly styled en-suite. Three further bedrooms are neutrally presented one with French doors allowing sunlight to pour into this versatile room. A spa-like house bathroom has an elegant finish.
