Property Details

Calling all Classic Car Owners and Hobbyists – Spacious Freehold Garage on Horsford Road, a quiet cul-de-sac in Brixton. A rare opportunity to acquire a spacious freehold garage, offering approximately 430 square feet of versatile space in a sought-after Brixton location, set on a quiet and neighbourly cul-de-sac. Ideal for classic car owners, hobbyists, or those seeking secure storage, this well-appointed garage is equipped with electricity, water, and plumbing, ensuring maximum functionality. The wide doors neatly slide open to provide easy access, while two windows with blurred security glass—currently covered—can be unblocked to allow natural light to filter in. A fantastic investment with no council tax liability, this garage is situated in a prime residential area, just a ten-minute stroll from the vibrant heart of Brixton, with local amenities such as cafes and shops on the doorstep. With excellent transport links including Brixton tube (Victoria Line) and overground services within walking distance, this property is perfectly positioned for convenience. A rare find in a well-connected and thriving area—enquire now to avoid disappointment.
