Property Details

A spacious four bedroom, two bathroom contemporary house with a South-West facing garden and a private off-street parking space. This stylish modern home boasts exceptional energy performance, aided by a new boiler. A private parking space to the side enhances convenience. A welcoming hallway with cloakroom and WC leads into a bright, open-plan ground floor. The sleek kitchen features wrap-around cabinetry, wine fridge, and ample granite worktop space, flowing into a generous reception and dining area with bespoke storage and French doors to the garden. The landscaped South-West facing garden is a sunny, low-maintenance retreat, arranged over two levels for relaxing or entertaining. A luxurious principal suite occupies the top floor, complete with en-suite. The first floor hosts a large bedroom spanning the width of the home. Two further bedrooms overlook the garden – one a delightful nursery, easily convertible into a double bedroom, and the other arranged as a double home office. A chic family bathroom separates the bedrooms. Excellent built-in storage features throughout. This superb home offers stylish, comfortable living in a quiet yet well-connected location.
