4 bedroom maisonette for sale

£475,000

Leasehold

Property Details

A versatile four bedroom maisonette set over the first floor of a charming period property, this generously proportioned home boasts its own private entrance, an abundance of natural light, and appealing character. The private front door opens into a welcoming hallway, leading up stairs and through to a bright and elegant reception room at the rear. Dual sash windows flood the space with natural light, complemented by a charming built-in cabinet and ample space to lounge and dine. Adjacent, a well-appointed kitchen features white cabinetry and worktops along both walls, plus a serving hatch enhancing connectivity—offering potential to open into one expansive living area, subject to permissions. Three well-proportioned bedrooms lie to the front, all neutrally decorated and flexible in use, while a fourth, currently a study, could serve as a nursery or dressing room. A family bathroom boasts a luxurious roll-top bath with overhead shower. Completing the property is a sizable loft for storage or potential conversion, subject to permissions.
