Property Details

This beautifully proportioned three bedroom garden flat occupies the ground floor of a desirable Victorian mansion on Rushcroft Road, a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Brixton. The home boasts period charm throughout, including high ceilings, ornate cornicing, a decorative fireplace, and a bay-fronted reception room with wooden shutters. A sociable dining room with exposed brick chimney breast flows into a modern kitchen, refitted within the last three years, complete with sleek cabinetry, integrated appliances, and a new boiler. The South-facing private garden is ideal for entertaining, featuring a built-in barbecue and access to an additional, communal garden with bike storage. All three bedrooms are well-sized, with the principal and second rooms offering generous proportions, while the third is perfect as a study or nursery. A stylish bathroom and abundant storage complete the space. Perfectly located, this home is moments from Brixton Village, the Victoria Line, Brockwell Park, and a wealth of local amenities.
