Property Details

A striking two double bedroom, two bathroom flat with access to a beautifully maintained residents' garden and the rare benefit of allocated off-street parking. Set within a secure, well-maintained modern development, this elevated and immaculately presented home enjoys rooftop views and a prime location moments from Brockwell Park, Tulse Hill station, and central Herne Hill. Designed for contemporary living, the spacious semi-open plan reception room boasts ample space for dining, lounging, and entertaining, with a striking bay window flooding the area with light. The sleek kitchen features high-end integrated appliances and stylish cabinetry. Both double bedrooms are generously sized with built-in wardrobes and neutral décor, separated for privacy, with the principal bedroom benefitting from an en-suite. A further smart bathroom serves the second bedroom. The South-East facing residents' garden is a sunny retreat, ideal for relaxing or socialising with neighbours. Additional features include bike garage and storage shed, high energy efficiency, and an exceptional sense of community within the building.
