Property Details

This beautifully renovated four double bedroom Victorian house features a south-facing garden and seamlessly blends classic character with contemporary style. The inviting hallway leads to a bright front reception room with high ceilings, a ceiling rose, plantation-shuttered sash windows, and real wood flooring throughout the ground floor. To the rear, an open-plan kitchen, dining, and reception area forms the heart of the home, with bi-fold doors opening onto the garden. The kitchen boasts black cabinetry, sleek worktops, a traditional butler sink, and fully integrated appliances. A convenient downstairs bathroom includes a walk-in shower cubicle and modern fittings. Also on the ground floor is a double bedroom with French doors to the courtyard. Upstairs, three further double bedrooms, including a principal spanning the property's width, share a luxurious fully tiled family bathroom with a deep Villeroy & Boch bath, overhead shower, black Crittall-style screen, and contemporary vanity. Additional features include a fully tanked cellar. The south-facing garden offers privacy, ease of maintenance, and a peaceful outdoor retreat. There is potential to extend into the loft, subject to permissions.
