Property Details

This stylish one-bedroom apartment sits on the third floor of a modern, purpose-built development and is finished to an impressive contemporary standard throughout. The open-plan kitchen and reception forms the heart of the home, featuring white gloss handleless cabinetry with solid worktops, integrated appliances, and a window above the sink for ventilation, with French doors opening onto a covered terrace. Its corner position provides dual-aspect views, enhancing the sense of space, while the terrace offers a sheltered spot to enjoy the outdoors in any weather. The reception is inviting and versatile, complemented by neutral décor and quality finishes. The bedroom provides a peaceful retreat with soft carpeting, a built-in wardrobe, access to the terrace, and a Juliette balcony for additional light and air. A crisp white bathroom with shower over bath, ceramic tiling, and a window ensures practicality and comfort. A bright hallway with a useful storage cupboard completes this well-designed and low-maintenance home.
