Property Details

A pristine and versatile three bedroom, two bathroom ground floor garden flat, set within an attractive double-fronted detached period conversion in the heart of Balham. Combining contemporary design with timeless charm, this elegant home offers beautifully finished interiors and a private, low-maintenance garden. The open-plan reception and kitchen form the heart of the home, flooded with light from skylights and a wall of glass doors opening to the garden. Sleek glossy cabinetry, contrasting black worktops, and a stylish breakfast bar create a sociable, modern space with engineered wooden flooring throughout. The garden, paved and framed by a white rendered wall, offers privacy and tranquillity — perfect for al fresco dining or relaxing outdoors, with Tooting Bec Common close by. Three neutrally presented bedrooms include a principal suite with fitted wardrobes and en-suite shower room, a spacious second bedroom with fitted storage, and a versatile third bedroom. A marbled family bathroom with rain shower and under-sink storage completes this superb Balham home.
