Property Details

An exceptional four double bedroom, two bathroom Victorian house with a beautifully landscaped, low-maintenance garden. The ground floor centres around a striking double reception, enhanced by walls of glass, bi-folding doors and internal glazing, creating a bright, open yet homely feel. Original features blend seamlessly with contemporary finishes. To the rear, a substantial kitchen diner spans the width, fitted with shaker cabinetry, generous worktops and integrated appliances. A large dining area sits alongside windows, ideal for entertaining, with potential to extend into the side return (STNP). French doors open onto a low-maintenance garden with built-in seating, perfect for al-fresco dining. Upstairs, four double bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged. The principal spans the width of the home, while the top floor bedroom offers an en-suite, skylights and eaves storage. A further bedroom boasts a luxurious en-suite, with an additional WC serving the remaining rooms.
