

Kings Avenue, Clapham, SW4

2 bedroom flat - purpose built for sale

Share of Freehold

Property Details

A spacious two bedroom flat with a generous residents' garden, situated on the third floor of an impressive detached period mansion building. Set back from the street, the property enjoys a convenient location with a large supermarket, local amenities and a gym all close by. Offering over 700 square feet of well-balanced living space. The bright reception room is a wonderful focal point, benefitting from a double aspect with large windows, plenty of natural light and a charming fireplace creating a welcoming feel. The contemporary integrated kitchen provides excellent storage, generous work surfaces and a useful breakfast bar beneath a large window. Two well-proportioned bedrooms are positioned away from the main living areas, offering privacy and flexibility. A stylish modern bathroom completes the accommodation, featuring a full-size bath with overhead shower, neutral tiling and storage. This well-maintained building has been refurbished in recent years including updated windows and a lift. The large and leafy residents' garden is perfect for enjoying the warmer months.
