Property Details

This beautifully presented one double bedroom apartment offers stylish ground floor living with the rare advantage of a generous private garden. The bright open-plan reception provides excellent space to relax, dine and entertain, with a glazed door and large window drawing in natural light and opening directly onto the garden for an easy indoor-outdoor flow. The contemporary wrap-around kitchen features sleek handleless cabinetry, integrated appliances and subtle worktop lighting, creating a sociable and practical setting. Outside, the private garden is thoughtfully arranged with a patio and low-maintenance astro turf, ideal for al fresco dining or unwinding in a peaceful setting. The spacious double bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes and a calm, cosy finish, while the modern bathroom includes a bathtub with overhead shower and heated towel rail. Further storage is available in the hallway, and the development offers video entry and secure bike storage.
