Property Details

An elegant and beautifully presented two-bedroom first-floor Victorian apartment with a versatile study and a private south-west facing garden, offering over 800 square feet of stylish living space. The bright reception room is enhanced by a charming square bay with sash windows, fitted shutters, bespoke alcove cabinetry and a decorative ceiling rose. To the rear, a generous dine-in kitchen features timeless navy Shaker-style cabinetry, integrated Neff appliances, white subway tiled splashbacks and space for dining, leading through to a practical utility room with direct access to the garden. The principal bedroom enjoys peaceful garden views and a charming feature fireplace, whilst the second bedroom also benefits from a feature fireplace and is ideal as a guest room, nursery or home office. A separate study, currently used as a dressing room, adds flexibility, while the stylish bathroom is finished with a classic white suite, roll-top bath with overhead shower, subway tiling and striking geometric floor tiles.
