Property Details

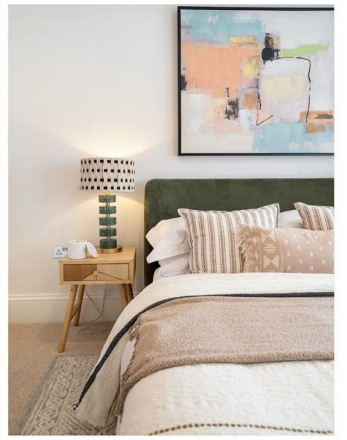

This beautifully refurbished three-bedroom family home has been thoughtfully renovated to create a stylish, turnkey home. Set behind a manicured front garden with a charming blue front door, the property opens into an impressive open-plan reception, kitchen and dining space, enhanced by herringbone flooring throughout the ground floor. The contemporary kitchen features striking teal cabinetry, sleek worktops with matching splashbacks, integrated appliances, a breakfast bar and two Velux rooflights, flooding the space with natural light. A separate study provides the perfect work-from-home space, complemented by a convenient downstairs WC. Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a bright principal bedroom and generous second double, both benefiting from two windows, plus a versatile third bedroom ideal as a child's room or guest bedroom. The stylish family bathroom is beautifully finished with blue tiling, geometric floor tiles, a bath with rainfall and handheld shower, floating vanity unit with illuminated LED mirror, heated towel rail and a window for natural ventilation.
