Property Details

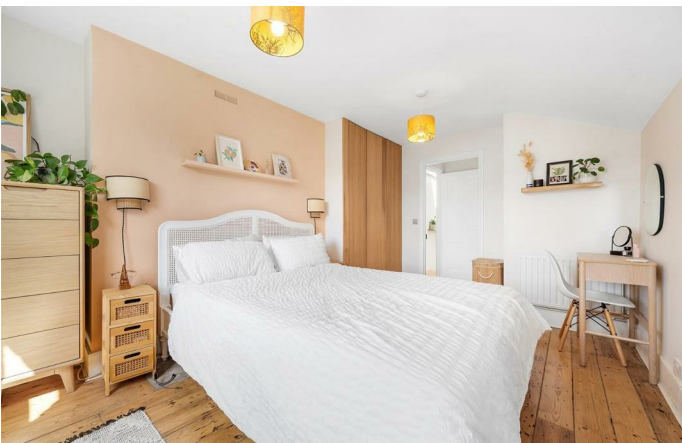

An exceptional two double bedroom, two bathroom split-level apartment, occupying the top floors of a Victorian terraced house in a pocket of Brixton. Offering over 900 square feet, this spacious home combines period character with a light, private and house-like feel. Huge bay windows overlook both Arodene Road and Helix Road, with no direct opposite neighbours, flooding the home with natural light while providing complete privacy. The reception room spans the width of the building and features ornate corning, a gas fireplace and bay window, with space for relaxing and dining. A separate kitchen diner features solid oak worktops, excellent storage and space for a breakfast bar, creating a sociable hub. The two double bedrooms are arranged on different levels to the rear, complemented by two bathrooms, including an en-suite with rain shower, and a bathroom with bathtub and overhead shower. Two loft storage spaces, large hallway cupboards and extensive bespoke storage complete this exceptional home.
