2 bedroom flat - conversion for sale

Share of Freehold

Property Details

A well-presented two-bedroom period conversion, offering a private garden, large residents' garden and allocated off-street parking. Set within an impressive period house, the property retains plenty of character alongside a well-considered modern finish. A welcoming hallway with original Victorian tiled flooring leads into a spacious reception room, featuring built-in cabinetry, alcove shelving and a retained fireplace, with French doors opening onto the terrace. The reception room connects to a stylish kitchen with cream cabinetry, dark worktops, integrated appliances and a Quooker hot tap, while a useful utility room provides additional storage and direct garden access. The terrace leads onto a paved and fenced private garden, ideal for outdoor seating and entertaining. Both bedrooms are well proportioned, with the principal bedroom benefiting from fitted storage and a built-in desk. The stylish bathroom features contemporary black fittings, rainfall and handheld showers, underfloor heating and useful concealed storage.
