Property Details

We are delighted to offer to market this beautiful, architecturally designed, Victorian three double bedroom family residence with two bathrooms, a study, a utility room and a large walk-in dressing room. Renovated and restored throughout this lovely home has an abundance of selling points, including new electrics wired to facilitate multiple room entertainment technology, LED down-lighting, major remodelling throughout to offer excellent modern living spaces especially in the stunning, bright kitchen diner to the rear - all newly refurbished with large paned acoustic windows - with underfloor heating in the kitchen, bathrooms and throughout the lower ground floor. The kitchen diner has sliding doors through to a delightful timber walled private garden. The property has been refurbished with care, to a high specification and the living space flows seamlessly from the front of the building through to the garden at the rear. Morval Road is located a seven-minute walk to Brixton centre, a two-minute walk from Brockwell Park and the amenities in leafy Herne Hill are a ten-minute stroll in the opposite direction.
