1 bedroom house for sale

£599,950

Freehold

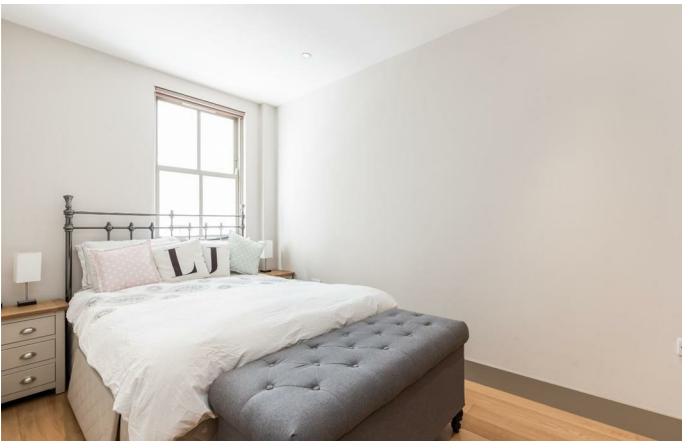

Property Details

A bright and characterful one bedroom mews house, offering contemporary design in an exclusively secluded and secure development, a stone's throw from the heart of Brixton. This unique row of four pastel coloured freehold mews houses are nestled in a hidden, private and gated cobbled courtyard. In such an idyllic and peaceful setting, it is hard to remember that you are so centrally located, only minutes from the tube station and the lively Brixton Village. The heart of the home is the impressive entertaining space, an open-plan reception room with a mezzanine level and double height ceiling. Tall windows and a large skylight allow natural light to flood every corner of the room whilst the mezzanine adds extra floor space and character, currently occupied as a dining area, this space could be repurposed to suit any of the purchasers needs, providing room for guests to sleep, a home office or a cosy entertaining area. The bedroom and bathroom are no exception to the high quality of finishes that are a running theme throughout this charming house. The bedroom is tranquil and spacious, offering a walk-in wardrobe and a modern, sleek bathroom. Every inch of the property has been thoughtfully designed.
