Property Details

This stunning top floor apartment is a fantastic example of what can be done when one of these majestic townhouses is refurbished with care and attention to detail. Set within unique Raleigh Gardens, a desirable and leafy residential road tucked away off Brixton Hill, the property benefits from a quiet setting as the entrance is a no-through road which only allows access to these particular houses. This lovely flat has been renovated to a high standard throughout and benefits from an abundance of natural light. The current owners have really made the most of the charming rooms and the airy atmosphere within the property. The open-plan reception room at the front of the house is a charming room brimming with character, with views over the leafy, well-maintained front gardens. The modern kitchen is sleek and stylish, with trendy tiling and everything you might need in terms of appliances and storage. The two double bedrooms are separated, providing a desirable level of privacy and are both a good size, each benefitting from some bespoke built-in wardrobes and sharing a tasteful, modern bathroom.
