3 bedroom flat - purpose built for sale

£730,000

Property Details

Two comfortable double bedrooms peacefully occupy one side of the property, neighbouring a beautifully finished bathroom, complete with a free-standing roll top bath tub. The other side of the apartment comprises a vast open-plan reception, a fantastic space for entertaining, relaxing and unwinding. Glass bi-folding doors open out onto an attractive, private roof-terrace that overlooks the park at the rear. Having access to private outside space is more important than ever and the sliding doors allow a seamless flow from inside to out, creating an extension of the living space and the perfect area to watch the sun sink into the horizon with a drink. Adjacent, the final room of the property is currently occupied as a home office. One of the big selling points to this stunning home is the overall size and flexibility the living space offers. The home office could easily be repurposed as a third bedroom or anything else to suit the needs of the new purchaser.
