4 bedroom house for sale

£1,175,000

Freehold

Property Details

The ground floor comprises a dual-aspect reception room, a large and characterful bay window at the front teams up with glass French doors. The doors provide access from the rear of the room straight out to the well-maintained side return and into the vibrant South-West facing, private garden. A spacious and modern kitchen follows on, feeding straight out onto the patio, ideal for dining al fresco in the warmer months. The kitchen itself follows suit with the rest of the property, offering an attractive balance between Modern finishes and charming period character. The bright open room is well equipped, offering generous storage options, surface space and comfortable dimensions to dine. Arranged over the upper floors are four very generous double bedrooms. In terms of dimensions, there is no compromise in this property, making it truly ideal for a wide range of purchasers. The principal bedroom spans the entire width of the house and benefits from a lovely bay window. Two attractive, contemporary bathrooms serve the house, one with a walk in shower and the other providing a bathtub.
