Property Details

Natural light is a running theme throughout this beautiful family home. Designed with modern living in mind, this fantastic four bedroom, two bathroom, freehold terraced house boasts stunning living space and an appealing, low-maintenance private garden. The house resides just off Brixton Hill on a leafy residential street, within easy access to central Brixton and Brockwell Park. The heart of the home is the open-plan reception room with double aspect, floor-to-ceiling windows at either end of the building. This spectacular rooms stretches the entire length of the house, flooded with natural light through a glass roof at the rear and large pane sliding patio doors that allow the living space to flow seamlessly into the larger than average private rear garden. The bespoke integrated contemporary kitchen boasts an abundance of storage and surface space. A fantastic entertaining area with hardwood flooring and ample space for a large dining table. Central Brixton is an eight-minute stroll and it's a five-minute stroll to the green open spaces of Brockwell Park. A fourteen-minute walk across the park brings you to Herne Hill station and the many pubs, cafes and restaurants of leafy Herne Hill. Both Sudbourne School and Corpus Christi primary schools are also within a few minutes' walk.
