Property Details

The ground floor comprises an attractive reception at the front complete with a bay window and feature fireplace, hardwood flooring runs through to a fully integrated and well-appointed kitchen-diner. The kitchen itself is substantial and offers considerable storage options. The space leads through to a utility room, a downstairs WC and access onto the low-maintenance private garden at the rear. Outside space has become more valuable than ever and this pretty garden is the ideal spot to savour the warmer months, hosting dinner parties' al-fresco and soaking up the sunshine. Arranged over the first floor, a particularly attractive and well-proportioned bedroom sits adjacent to the second reception room and a modern, family-sized bathroom at the rear. The second floor hosts the second 'loft-style' bedroom, stylishly finished with exposed brick and access to significant eaves storage.
