Property Details

At the front of the property, an appealing reception that spans the width of the building is the perfect spot to lounge, dine and entertain with views over the pretty terraced street below. The flat has been meticulously designed with stylish finishes throughout including exposed brick walls, a feature fireplace, modern radiators and beautiful, high quality fixtures and fittings. The modern kitchen at the rear is sleek and integrated, with plenty of storage and a breakfast bar on offer when a casual dining option is desired. Tucked away above the kitchen, a handy mezzanine level is the perfect spot for storing away all those items unused on a regular basis. The bedroom is peacefully situated overlooking the rear gardens and sits adjacent to a modern bathroom. This delightful flat is unusual and appealing, finished tastefully with neutral tones, perfect to move into straight away where the purchaser can enjoy the space and take their time to add their own touch.
