Property Details

Tucked away quietly over the second and third floor of this handsome end-of-terrace Victorian house, offering over 760 square feet of internal space and flooded with natural light, the property has been carefully designed to maximise the space on offer. Tasteful, neutral and modern décor throughout adds to the appeal, and being split over two floors gives the true sense of a home. The open-plan reception is a brilliant space. The generous kitchen is sleek and minimalistic, with high-quality integrated appliances, plenty of storage and a kitchen island/ breakfast bar. The dimensions allow for plenty of space to dine and the room wraps around in an 'L' shape, providing a cosy lounge area tucked away at the rear. Adjacent, a convenient Utility room and WC. The upper floor comprises of two comfortable double bedrooms, both complete with built-in storage and sharing a beautiful family-size bathroom, offering both a walk-in shower and an attractive, freestanding bathtub.
