2 bedroom flat - conversion for sale

£550,000

Share of Freehold

Property Details

Recently renovated to a high standard, the flat offers a fantastic layout and stylish fixtures and fittings throughout. The two double bedrooms are nestled quietly at the rear of the building with fresh air and natural light streaming in through the glass doors. The principal bedroom has a large skylight with a walk-in wardrobe and the apartment offers great storage throughout, with multiple built-in cupboards within the central hallway. The open-plan reception at the front of the property is beautifully finished, offering a contemporary kitchen with a convenient breakfast bar. The room further benefits from high ceilings, solid wooden flooring and a bay window. The bathroom is conveniently located between the entertaining space and the bedrooms, as tastefully presented as the rest of the property, which is brand new throughout. Last but not least, the private rear garden is low-maintenance and secluded, perfect for savouring the warmer months of the year. This fantastic flat has been finished to a high level, offering a neutral but modern and appealing style, perfect to move into immediately where the purchaser can take their time to make the property their own.
